

Hypotheses

H1. Previous phenological events constrain later events; e.g., late-fruiting species fruit late in the season because they flower later in the growing season. If so, then the previous phenophase is the primary determinant of later phenophase.

Expected results:

H2. Interphase duration constrains phenology. E.g., late-fruiting species set fruit late in the season because they require longer development time.

